Proudly supporting the Arts in Ipswich

IAS SEPTEMBER 2016 PRESIDENTS REPORT

Hi everyone,

I am very pleased to advise that Judith Baker has accepted the positions of "Secretary" and "Workshop Co-ordinator", her previous involvement and experience with the IAS has and will be an enormous help, thanks Judy. The position of Treasurer is still open, it's a fairly straight forward job and help would be available if you need it.

Judy has been very quick off the mark and we have a Watercolour Workshop scheduled for Saturday 29th October, final arrangements are still to be locked in with the tutor. Member discounts and Early Bird bookings will be available to IAS members enabling them to secure a place 48hrs before it is opened to the general public, you will receive full details in an email very soon.

Ipswich Art Society artists Kate Douglas and Dario Zanesco have their "INCEPTION" exhibition on the 13th to 18th of October, they have over 30 exceptional paintings on display, please support them if you can. See the promotion in this newsletter.

Ipswich Art Society acknowledges the traditional owners of the land upon which it meets

You may also want to check out our Facebook page which is now being updated with the latest IAS news and events.

Don't forget that membership renewals are now due and our untutored art group meets every Tuesday 10am -2pm, bring your art and lunch, hope to see you there.

SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

Hello everybody, as your new secretary I am looking forward to meeting the members of the Ipswich Art Society at some of our coming workshops. You have a new committee this year to help to continue on with the art activities for the Ipswich region. Our energetic President, Garry Broadhurst, is taking a break away on holidays in the great outback at the moment and will re-join us for our first official meeting. We are now waiting for the person out there who will become our next Treasurer. Anyone who would like to take this position on, please contact us. Monica Buciu, who has been holding her Drawing 2 Painting classes on a Tuesday for a long time is taking a well-deserved break from her teaching role, she will be our Exhibition Organizer for our coming exhibitions which are in the planning at the moment. She will be missed by her students who have attended her classes. The society has had its ups and downs and has been through hard times. Many committee members over the years have done the hard yards to provide activities for artists in their local community. Their input of time and hard work have kept the IAS going. Let's get together and continue on with this very much needed Ipswich cultural icon and keep the arts alive. Bye till next month, Judy

FOCUSING ON FLOWERS WORKSHOP

Hosted by the Ipswich Art Society

Come along and join us in our end of year workshops continuing our emphasis on Watercolours & Acrylics. In the New Year, 2017, we will be bringing workshops on a variety of genres to cater to all the various mediums throughout the year.

Tutor for this floral workshop, Jan Lawnikanis, will be concentrating on lights and darks, the two areas that make your paintings really work. There is a lot to learn in this area and beginners to advanced artists will have lots of hints and techniques to add to their collection at the end of the day. Jan's artworks can be viewed on her website. <http://www.janlawnikanis.com/> Class is suitable for beginners to experience advanced artists.

Opposite is one Jan's lovely watercolours.
