IAS AUGUST 2016 PRESIDENTS REPORT

Hi everyone,

Firstly I would like to introduce myself, Garry Broadhurst as the new President of the Ipswich Art Society.

The IAS year has had a sluggish start following the President and Treasurer standing down at the July AGM. The new committee consists of myself (President) and Monica Buciu (Exhibition Officer) in addition we have no Tutorial Classes planned and the Wednesday evening Life Drawing has not operated since May, currently we have a regular untutored Tuesday 10am - 2pm art group which is being well attended.

Although I have been a member of IAS for less than a year I enjoy being part of this organisation and hope that I can help it re-energise, I am only a beginner artist but I have many years experience on Club committees including 8 President years.

I am calling out to all members past and present for your support, our immediate needs are to fill the positions of Treasurer and Secretary, I am sure that there are also plenty of you with experience running exhibitions, tutored classes and Life Drawing, if you can assist with advice or hands on I would love to hear from you. You can contact me on info@ipswichartsociety.com.au or by phone 0400 800 301.

Our first priority is to promote the society membership and restart a Wednesday evening program with Life Drawing and Workshops.

Monica is planning an exhibition and we will need artwork so please consider getting some of those canvasses to the completed stage, I hope to have some details for you in the next newsletter.

kind regards,

Garry Broadhurst
IAS President
